

Billionaire, Let's Divorce Novel Chapter 11 To 12

Chapter 11

"It's that woman's hair!"

Su Li said in a bad mood, "Then it's called the physiological period. I'll have to trouble you to explain more clearly next time, or else I won't understand."

The butler's face darkened. "That means you're not pregnant!"

Su Li: "..."

"How can you conceive so easily? You say it, right? It's alright, let's keep going!" After Xiao Yue finished speaking, she realized that she had said something wrong and wanted to explain. Seeing how fierce the steward was, she didn't dare to say anything else, afraid that she would say something wrong, and her heart was in turmoil.

"I'm not pregnant," said Quercus, deliberately in a nonchalant tone. "What's the matter?"

The butler's expression was extremely distorted. After a moment of silence, he said, "I will inform the Young Master that you have not succeeded in getting pregnant. He will continue to come over after the next ovulation. "You must remember to work harder. If you don't get what you want, then you'll be letting down the Xing Family ancestors."

"What does this have to do with our ancestors? It's not my fault! "

The butler did not say anything, but turned around and left with a sullen expression.

Don't be angry, Young Mistress, that's how it is when you go shopping. You know, having children is a top priority and she will inevitably care about it. Don't take it to heart. I know, it's not your fault, don't be angry! "If you're angry, then it's not good." As she spoke, she patted the Suli oak gently on the back.

“It’s fine, I’m not angry.” He took a deep breath. Luckily, Xiao Yue was here to comfort her, otherwise she would really be furious.

Even though they knew that the most important thing for them to marry into this family was to give birth and not to conceive a child, it was within reason that they were disappointed. But what about that attitude? It was as if she had done something wrong!

Pregnancy could not be controlled, even in the ovulation period. How many times had she and Xing Beihan been together? How could it be so easy to conceive?

Suli oak felt deeply aggrieved, but in addition to feeling aggrieved, she also secretly rejoiced in her heart.

Time passed day by day, and each day was more or less over. The novelty of this luxurious manor had completely disappeared. All that was left was boredom, endless boredom ...

Suddenly, one day, Suli oak discovered that Xiao Yue did not come, a new face in her place. After asking, he realized that Xiao Yue was sick.

Su Li Oak rushed over to take a look and found Xiao Yue in his room. His lips were pale and he did not look well. Xiao Yue was taking medicine and was about to get up from the bed when she saw the oak tree. The oak tree quickly stopped her and asked her to lie down.

Su Li asked with concern, “Have you seen a doctor?”

Xiao Yue forced a smile, “No.” This is just a minor ailment, it will be cured very soon! “

“You call that a minor illness? Look at how white your face is!” “Go get a doctor!”

Little Ice asked, “Which doctor?”

Su Li thought about it carefully. There was only one doctor she knew. Should she really invite him over?

At first she was hesitant, but then she firmly said, “Dr. Duan Chen Dui.”

Xiao Bing hesitated, “This... Not so good. Mister Duan’s fee was very high, and there were many people seeking him out for treatment. Why would he show it to Xiao Yue? “Even if she did come, she wouldn’t be able to afford the medical fees ...”

“Don’t be so long-winded, hurry up and invite them. I’ll settle any problems.”

Since Oak Su had already said so, Little Bing had no choice but to go and invite him. She had an ugly expression on her face as she left.

Xiao Yue held Su Li’s hand and said, “Young Mistress, you should call her back. It’s not worth it for Doctor Duan to treat someone like me!”

“Who are you? Who am I? Aren’t you all the same! You’re not allowed to say such words again! “

“But, Doctor Duan is so busy, will he really come over?”

“Yes, I believe he will.” Suriyawong said with a faint smile, his eyes shining.

After about half an hour, Duan Chen came over. The two women in the room were very happy to see him coming.

Duan Chen had a faint smile on his face the entire time. He came in a hurry and didn’t bring any assistants with him, so he entrusted Su Li and oak to be his assistants. Quercus shuriensis readily accepted this request.

In the process of treating Xiao Yue, he was very careful and gentle, as if he was treating Su Li. In his heart, he treated everyone regardless of whether they were noble or lowly. Regardless of whether they were young madams or servants, they treated everyone with the same attitude.

Su Li was admiring Xiao Yue from the bottom of his heart, but seeing how nice he was to Xiao Yue, he felt a little uncomfortable ... Just a little.

“Help me with the needle.” Duan Chen said indifferently.

The Suli oak helped him take the needle and handed it to him, their hands touching. Although they had only been in contact for less than a second, Suli Oak could feel the temperature on his hand, and his heartbeat suddenly shot up.

After seeing Doctor Duan out, Xiao Yue insisted on sending Doctor Duan out, but was stopped by Duan Chen Dui. He said you weren't well enough to get out of bed, and I could walk alone.

"Why don't I drive you?"

Duan Chen stopped walking and turned around to look at Su Li's Oak. His eyes contained a smile as he lightly nodded.

A smile appeared on Su Li's oak face and he ran over happily.

She sent Duan Chen over to the garden in front of the Manor. This was the farthest she could go. She would reach the main entrance if she went any further. She couldn't go to the main gate. Her bodyguards would definitely stop her. If Duan Chenshuang found out that Xing Beihan restricted her freedom, he would lose everything.

In the garden, the two of them were walking slowly. The air was filled with the fragrance of flowers, causing the atmosphere to become more delicate. However, although no one said anything, they did not feel awkward.

The man maintained the same faint smile on his face, which made Su Li Qu feel very relaxed and not nervous at all.

Suddenly, the Suli oak tree stopped and looked around. There was no one else around, so she felt that the time had come.

"That, can you stop and listen to me? I have something to say to you!" Quercus laughed, embarrassed.

"Sure." Duan Chen Jing smiled. He politely stopped and looked at her. He looked at the Suli oak with a tender look in his eyes, and if he hadn't looked at everyone like that, the Suli oak might have suspected that he liked himself.

Su Li cleared his throat and hesitated: "Although I know it is very bold to say so but we have only met twice, but other than you, no one else can help me!" Doctor Duan, can you help me? "

Noticing that Su Li Kui was slightly nervous, Duan Chen smiled faintly.

He said, "You don't have to call me Ah Chen. If there's anything I can help you with, just say it. As long as it's something I can help with, I'll definitely do it." This was said out of courtesy.

His parents had already taught him that it was a blessing to be at a disadvantage in life. We must establish a good character, do what we say, and be willing to help others.

Only by doing it properly would one be able to go far.

"Really? Great, then I'll thank you first! It's like this... I want you to help me buy the pill." Su Li said awkwardly, and two red clouds flew up on his face.

Chapter 12

It was too awkward to talk about the pill with a man who had only seen him twice and had not spent more than three hours talking to him.

To Duan Chen who was a medical professional, this didn't embarrass him. He thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Alright."

Surrey Oak was surprised. How could he agree so readily? "Could it be that I am not going to ask for its use?" "Aren't you going to ask me what I'm here for?"

"What else can you do with contraceptives?" Duan Chen said with a faint smile.

"Oh, yes." Quercus scratched his head, feeling like a fool.

Seeing her expression, Duan Chenyuan couldn't help but laugh.

"Is there something wrong with your life? I'm sorry to ask, but it's just a matter of concern, and it doesn't matter if you don't want to say it."

"It's okay, I don't think it's rude. It's just that some things are a long story. Anyway, I don't want to get pregnant! However, there's no place to get a pill. I see that your character is pretty good, and you're also a doctor. You should be able to help me."

The facts proved that her choice was correct, and her judgement was very accurate.

Yes, she didn't want to be pregnant.

Although she didn't succeed in getting pregnant this time, the steward's harsh attitude towards her made her feel very unhappy. But if she got pregnant, she would be even more upset.

There were too many mysteries surrounding this manor. How could she dare to give birth to that man's child before she knew the truth?

There was only one solution, and that was to take the pill. Although taking the pill was very harmful to one's body, there was no other way. Could it be that he was wearing a set? That man definitely wouldn't wear it!

"Alright, thank you for your trust. I will bring it to you as soon as possible."

"Ah?" Actually, there's no need to be so quick. You can busy yourself first, I'm not in a hurry. "On..." Suriyawong counted with his fingers. "Just send it by the 15th. I'll give you the money then!"

At the end of the day, Duan Chen understood what the Su Li oak tree was about and lightly smiled twice.

He had also heard some rumors about the Suli oak tree. No matter what kind of girl she was, he respected her choice and wouldn't bother with other people's family matters. She would not be like those people outside, saying that she was a gold digger.

Everyone had their own choices and their own difficulties. They did not understand her difficulties when they did not really stand in the position of the Suli oaks to think about them, and therefore did not have the right to criticize her.

On the contrary, he thought Quercus Sulli was a very lovely man.

Gentle, polite, kind, not like the girls outside. This was also the reason why he chose to help Su Li bring out the pill.

In that case ... We can meet again.

The time was almost up. Duan Chen and Su Li waved to each other and said their goodbyes.

Under the warm light, Duan Chen's tall and slender figure gradually left the Suli oak tree. As he walked, he waved to the Suli oak tree, maintaining a faint smile on his face.

Quercus could not help but laugh, waving at him with his white hands. He was looking forward to the next meeting!

Su Li's heart was a bit empty as he watched Duan Ling Tian leave. She turned to go back to the manor. Just then, she bumped into the butler. She realized that the housekeeper had been standing behind her during that time.

Ahh!" She still had an old face pasted on it. If it wasn't for the fact that she couldn't come out in broad daylight, she would have thought it was a ghost.

"Why aren't you talking? It almost scared me to death!" Suriyawong covered his chest in shock and said.

The butler smiled eerily. "Young Mistress, what were you talking about with Doctor Duan just now?"

"Nothing." Zurich said expressionlessly.

Fortunately, from the looks of it, the butler probably didn't hear her and Ah Chen's conversation. If she heard it, it would be terrible!

Although Su Li said it wasn't a big deal, but the butler was a smart person. How could he not see that she was hiding anything from him?

The butler said, "I advise you not to touch other men."

"What's wrong?"

Could it be that other men were poisoned? Only Xing Beihan didn't have poison?

It didn't sound right at all, so why couldn't she get in touch with other men? In the past few days at the manor, apart from the chef in the kitchen, the people she had been in contact with were all women. It was not easy for a male doctor to arrive, but she was even warned by the butler that she was drunk.

Was there a need to watch it so closely?

“You’re Young Master’s woman, Young Master wouldn’t like it.”

The Suli oak tree was speechless.

The man wasn’t here, so what if he knew? It was just a conversation with another man, not something that couldn’t be described. Do you have to be jealous?

Ten thousand horses and grasses galloped through the heart of the Suli oak.

She said with a fake smile, “I know, I’m just giving him a normal gift. After all, they helped me treat my illness, so there’s nothing else.

Although he spoke well, Suli Oak only wanted to say the two words for the housekeeper and Xing Beihan, hehe.

The butler revealed an enigmatic smile and nodded his head, “That’s for the best. In the future, do your best not to come into contact with other men. “It’s fine if I see you, if young master saw you ...”

If Xing Beihan saw what would happen, the butler didn’t finish speaking. Instead, he gave a profound smile and gave Su Li a look that said he wanted to know what would happen.

Upon seeing her gaze, the Suli oak tree was covered in goosebumps.

This butler is really too magnanimous. Isn’t he just hanging out with other men? Even if Xing Beihan was jealous, shouldn’t a steward be in charge? It really was a problem, Mom!

Midnight ...

It was a dark and windy night, and except for the bodyguards, everyone in the manor had fallen asleep.

Suddenly, the ground exploded with a clap of thunder.

It was an ear-piercing scream, like the howls of a female ghost. It was devoid of any sense of beauty. The sound was exceptionally ear-piercing, scaring the birds on the trees. The birds could no longer stay in their nests, and they all flew out.

The source of the scream was to the east, and the Suli oak tree was to the west, about a hundred meters away.

The sound was so loud that it seemed as if it would tear one's throat apart, causing one's hair to stand on end. Although the voice was loud, it could not reach the ears of Quercus shuriensis.

She did not wake up, and the rest of the people in the manor had long since turned into a mess. Almost everyone in the manor had woken up. They were either woken up or woke up. Everyone was busy with their work.

At the same time, the Quercus Suli also woke up. It was awakened by the sound of footsteps outside the window and the sound of people discussing in hushed voices.

She rubbed her sleepy eyes and got up from the bed. She turned on the light and looked outside.

It was noisy outside, and the Suli oak looked at the clock on the wall and saw that it was two o'clock in the morning.

What was he doing in the middle of the night?
